

The background is a stylized illustration of a Wild West desert. At the top left, a wooden sign with the words 'WILD WEST' in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters is hanging from a wooden post. Above the sign, a white bull skull with large, curved horns is mounted on the post. The sign is set against a backdrop of a desert landscape with rolling hills, a cactus, and a small body of water. The sky is a gradient of blue and orange. The right side of the image is a solid orange circle containing text and a list. The bottom of the image features a green landscape with cacti and a large, rocky mesa.
